4 Complete the dialogue. Write the correct form of the verb in brackets.

Anne: <sup>0</sup> Have you ever been (you / ever go) to New York, Sam?

Sam: Yes, I went there about two years ago. We <sup>1</sup> (decide) to go while my brother <sup>2</sup> (study) there.

Anne: Good idea! <sup>3</sup> (he / show) you around the city?

Sam: Yes. The tall buildings were amazing!

Anne: It sounds cool.

Well, <sup>4</sup> (I / never go) there but I found this book about New York while I

<sup>5</sup> (look) around in the library last week. I really

<sup>6</sup> (enjoy) reading it, so now I want to go there too!

Sophie: <sup>0</sup> Have you ever been rafting, Jack?

Jack: <sup>1</sup> _____

Sophie: Well, you know, like on these survival programmes. You build a raft from wood, and then sail it on the water.

Jack: Oh, yes. It's easy. <sup>2</sup> _____ I tried it on a school trip last year.

Jack: Oh, don't worry. When I went, it <sup>5</sup> _____. We had races and everything. But my team didn't build our raft very well, so we were last in every race we had!

Sophie: Really? <sup>6</sup> _____
