5 Complete the dialogue. Write the correct form of the verb in brackets.

Paul: I had a trip with my family last week.

Sophie: Really? Where <sup>0</sup> did you go (you / go)?

Paul: We <sup>1</sup> went (go) to London for a few days. My dad decided to show us the place where he used to live.

Sophie: Did he use to live in London?

Paul: Yes, but he <sup>2</sup> left (leave) home when he was 18.

He <sup>3</sup> didn't stay (not stay) in London.

Sophie: Right. Why <sup>4</sup> did he leave (he / leave)?

Paul: Because he wanted to study Science at a university in another country. He's a Science teacher now!

Sophie: So did you see the house where he <sup>5</sup> grew up (grow up)?

Paul: Yes, that's right. His family lived in a house by the River Thames.

Sophie: It sounds lovely!

At my school there are lots and lots of things we <sup>0</sup> mustn't do. Our teachers always say we <sup>1</sup> come to school in our uniforms. If we wear jeans, we <sup>2</sup> go into our classroom! We <sup>3</sup> talk quietly when we're in the library. The teachers get angry if we're loud. And we <sup>4</sup> use our mobiles in the classroom. There's a big sign on the wall about that! But I'm happy to say we <sup>5</sup> eat our lunch in the garden at lunchtime, so that's great – but only when the weather's good. We <sup>6</sup> go out when it's raining!
