

1. Classify the plants attending to their stem. Write: tree, bush or grass where correspond and up to the line.

- a) They are the tallest plants. _____
- b) Most of them have a short and thin stem. _____
- c) They have low branches. _____
- d) Their stems are usually flexible and bend in the wind. _____
- e) Many of them have more than one stem. _____
- f) They have high branches. _____
- g) They are also known as a herbaceous plants. _____
- h) They have a hard, thick stem called a trunk. _____

2. Write angiosperm o gymnosperm at the end of each sentence and up to the line.

- a) Seeds develop inside the fruit. _____
- b) Seeds develop inside cones. _____
- c) Most of them are evergreen trees. _____
- d) Do not produce fruit. _____
- e) Produce fruit and flowers. _____

3. Use the words: stamens, petals, sepals to answer the questions up to the line.

- 4. a) Which part of the flower produces pollen? _____
- 5. b) Which part of the flower protects the new flower? _____
- 6. c) Which part of the flower attracts insects to the flower? _____