Anne Frank - Part 2

Otto, Anne's father, didn't want to stay in Germany. He said that Germany was dangerous for the Jews. In 1933, the Franks moved to Amsterdam in Holland.

Otto started a business. He worked in an office building.

World War II began in 1939 and in 1940 the Germans invaded Holland. The Jews were afraid of the Germans. Some Jews ran away from Holland and some Jews went into hiding. On July 6, 1942 the Franks went into hiding. Anne's family had a secret hiding place. The hiding place was behind a bookcase in Mr. Frank's office building.

Anne Frank - Part 3

A month before the Franks went into hiding Anne got a diary for her thirteenth birthday. The diary became her best friend. She called it "Kitty".

Anne wrote:

"...No one will be interested in the feelings of a thirteen-year-old schoolgirl. Still what does it matter? I want to write..... The reason for my starting a diary is that I have no real friend."

The Franks stayed in their hiding place for two years, and we can follow their lives day by day in Anne's diary.

Anne Frank - Part 4

Sadly, on August 4th of 1944, someone told the German police about the hiding place. The German police broke into the attic and sent all the people who were hiding there to death camps.

Anne died in Bergen-Belsen, in March 1945, two months before her country, Holland, was freed from the Nazi rule.

Only Mr. Frank survived the Holocaust. After the war he returned to Amsterdam and allowed the diary to be published (in 1947). It was translated into almost every language.
