Evaluation Task 554

1. Вы услышите диалог. Выберите правильный ответ на вопросы A – E из выпадающего списка.
Вы услышите запись дважды.

- A. Who was ill recently?
- B. Who had a birthday two weeks ago?
- C. Who is at school for the last year?
- D. Who is good at computers?
- E. Who likes photography?

2. Установите соответствие между текстами и рубриками, выбрав рубрику из выпадающего списка. Используйте каждую рубрику только один раз. В задании одна рубрика лишняя.

A. Рубрика:

It's strange that the differences in Britain itself are greater than those between Britain and other English-speaking countries. For a Londoner, it's easier to understand an American than a Cockney. Cockney has a pronunciation, accent and vocabulary unlike any other dialect. Cockney speech is famous for its rhyming slang. A word is replaced by a phrase or a person's name which rhymes with it.

B. Рубрика:

Other languages absorb English words too, often giving them new forms and meanings. So many Japanese, French, Spanish and Germans mix English words with their mother tongues that the resulting hybrids are called Japlish, Franglais, Spanglish and Denglish. In Japanese, for example, there is a verb Makudonaru, to eat at McDonald's.

C. Рубрика:

Have you ever wondered why the English language has different words for animals and meat? When William the Conqueror invaded England in 1066, French became the official language of the court. The English would look after the animals and cook the meat, still calling the animals pig, sheep and cow. The Normans, when they saw the cooked meat arrive at their table, would use French words – pork, mutton and beef.

D. Рубрика:

English is mixing with other languages around the world. It's probably the biggest borrower. Words newly coined or in vogue in one language are very often added to English as well. There are words from 120 languages in its vocabulary, including Arabic, French, German, Greek, Italian, Russian, Spanish and Turkish. 70 per cent of the English vocabulary are loan words and only 30 per cent of the words are native.

E. Рубрика:

Have you ever wondered how many people speak English? It's around 400 million people. Geographically, English is the most wide-spread language on earth, and it's second only to Chinese in the number of people who speak it. It's spoken in the British Isles, the USA, Australia, New Zealand and much of Canada and South Africa. English is also a second language of another 300 million people living in more than 60 countries.

F. Рубрика:

In Shakespeare's time only a few million people spoke English. All of them lived in what is now Great Britain. Through the centuries, as a result of various historical events, English spread throughout the world. There were only 30,000 words in Old English. Modern English has the largest vocabulary in the world – more than 600,000 words.

Imagine that you are preparing a project with your friend. You have found some interesting material for the presentation and you want to read this text to your friend.
You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, then be ready to read it out aloud.
You will not have more than 1.5 minutes to read it.

Your Facebook profile is a web page other members will see if they look you up. It gives people an idea about who you are and what your interests include. There you can upload your picture. Facebook assumes that many of the people with whom you will want to connect work for the same company, went to the same school or live in the same town as you.

To make it easier to find friends, Facebook gathers information about you and everyone else. It does it to create a dense network of contacts. The upside is that you will be able to see old classmates or co-workers who have Facebook accounts. The downside is that everyone else in that network will be able to find you. You can choose not to answer questions if you don't like them. You may also not accept invitations to become friends if you do not want to and just follow posts on the wall.
