

Fronted Adverbials

Learning Outcome: To place an adverbial phrase at the front of the sentence separated from the rest of the sentence with a comma.

Task: Rewrite the sentences so that the adverbial phrase is at the front, separated from the rest of the sentence with a comma.

1. The bus is due to leave the station in ten minutes.

2. I am going to see the dentist this afternoon.

3. The slimy slug crawled along the path very slowly.

4. The chef washed his sharp knives very carefully.

5. Ella tiptoed down the stairs without making a sound.

6. Harry goes to the gym twice a week.

7. Alfie runs three miles every day.

8. Emma looked for shells on the beach.

9. The snow covered peaks could be seen in the distance.

10. Layla has an interview at the college on Friday.

11. We are going walking in the Lake District at the weekend.
