

GRAMMAR CLASS

Recognize cases

I. Identifying Nominative Case Pronouns

Read each sentence. write the correct pronoun from the choices in parentheses.

Example: The person in charge was (she, her).

Answer: her

1. My father and (me, I) went fishing.
2. Inside the boat were my father and (me, I).
3. Cecily and (her, she) are good friends.
4. Into the room came Danielle and (she, her)
5. Jason and (he, him) bought new shoes.

II. Identifying Objective Case Pronouns

Read each sentence. select the correct pronoun from the choices in parentheses.

Then, label it DO, IO, or OP.

Example: I saw Helen and (she, her) at the concert.

Answer: I saw Helen and her the concert. DO

1. Corinne's dad gave (she, her) advice.
2. Have you seen Jim and (they, them)?
3. No one wanted to sit by (they, them).
4. Who chose Allan and (us, we)?
5. I hope no one picks Clay or (I, me).

III. Identifying Possessive Case Pronouns

Read the sentences. Write the correct pronoun from the choices in parentheses.

Example: The apartment was (ours, our's).

Answer: ours

1. The new store was (her's, hers).
2. When does (you're, your) class start?
3. The burning house was (our's, ours).
4. Did you put (your, you're) clothes away?
5. The dog buried bones in (there, their) yard.

Case of who and whom

IV. Choosing who or whom Correctly

Read each sentence. Then, write who or whom to complete the sentence.

Example _____ Will start for the Houston Astros tomorrow?

Answer who

1. _____ is the best student in the class?
2. For _____ did you vote?
3. He is a talented singer _____ is destined for great things.
4. The woman on the phone was not _____ he had anticipated.
5. To _____ did you speak about the charity event?
6. _____ was at the dance last weekend?
7. Ada knows _____ made the mistake.
8. Do you know _____ wrote that song? C
9. With _____ did you drive?
10. _____ should I ask about the return policy?