MAKING A FILM IN THE DESERT

By Peter Thomas

I always wanted to make a film about people living on Mars. I couldn't go to Mars to film it, so I went to the desert in Abu Dhabi instead. The desert looks a lot like Mars. Making a film was really difficult. The 1) was the biggest problem. I often started to feel dizzy. The actors got so hot during the day because they were wearing 2) The camera 3) also got very hot and sometimes stopped working. There were also a lot of 4) They flew onto the 5) faces while we filmed. But after 8 months, we finished filming and we didn't have to work in the desert anymore!
