

REPORTED SPEECH

- I. Choose the correct answer
 1. She me that she moved house last week.
 2. Mary that London was a great city.
 3. He Karen what her name was.
 4. She me if I lived in Paris.
 5. Mandy said she would go shopping
 6. Let me you a joke I heard the other day.
 7. Nancy said she couldn't go to the meeting because she was leaving on a business trip

- II. Turn the sentences into reported speech.
 1. "The sun rises in the east," the teacher said.
.....
 2. "I have to do the laundry now," Kim said.
.....
 3. "It's time for bed," Dad said.
.....
 4. "I'm going on holiday next week," he said.
.....
 5. "How old are you?" Pam asked me.
.....
 6. "Can you help me move this sofa?" Joe asked Fred.
.....
 7. "Did you go out to dinner last night?" he asked us.
.....
 8. "Do you live near here?" Jeff asked me.
.....
 9. "Are you still looking for a job?" Ken asked me.
.....
 10. "Have you finished these reports?" the boss asked me.
.....

11. "Don't forget to lock the door," Julie said to Ann.
.....
12. "Let's go out to lunch tonight," Cindy said to Greg.
.....
13. "Stop the car!" the policeman ordered me.
.....
14. "Please, please let me stay up late tonight!", Jimmy begged his mother.
15. "Hand in your assignments," the teacher said to the students.

III. Turn the sentences into direct speech.

1. Helen told me that she wasn't going to the cinema.
.....
2. John asked me to go to the concert with him.
.....
3. He asked his son if he had finished his school project.
.....
4. She asked whether anyone had left a message for her.
.....
5. The police officer ordered the driver to get out of the car.
.....