

1a. Match the descriptions to the jobs.

hairdresser biologist meteorologist caretaker TV presenter dentist artist librarian
tailor secretary miner cashier lifeguard surgeon

A person who looks after a large building, school or block of flats.
This person examines and treats people's teeth and gums.
This person works in an office, types letters, answers phone calls and arranges meetings.
This person studies the Earth's atmosphere and predicts the weather.
A person who paints or draws pictures, or creates sculptures for a living.
This person works underground and extracts substances like gold and coal.
A person in a bank or a shop who receives or pays out money.
A scientist who studies all living things.
A doctor who operates on a patient.
This person can cut, style, colour and even curl your hair
A person who hosts or introduces a programme on TV.
This person makes men's clothes
A person in charge of a collection of books.

1b. Which of these jobs:

	need a university degree	manual jobs	outdoor jobs	involve shifts	dangerous	involve contact with the public
hairdresser
biologist
meteorologist
caretaker
TV presenter
dentist
artist
librarian
tailor
secretary
miner
cashier
lifeguard
surgeon						