

A) Make inverted sentences from the sentences given, using the words in brackets () .

1. You shouldn't tell him about my trip to China. (On no ...)

.....

2. The bridge collapsed as soon as we managed to get across. (No sooner ...)

.....

3. I have seldom seen such a brilliant goal. (Seldom ...)

.....

4. Such a hurricane has rarely happened in Hereford. (Hardly ever ...)

.....

5. I wouldn't want to hurt your feelings for all the world. (Not ...)

.....

B) Complete these conditional sentences with a suitable ending

- 1- I would have gone out with my friends if
- 2- If it wasn't raining, ....
- 3- If I were him,...
- 4- They wouldn't feel ill now if
- 5- We'd be rich if...

C) Choose the correct word from the bubble. There are some extra words.

Forensic/ thick-skinned / consciousness / suspect / self-confident / inquire / judgmental / single-minded / victim / conscious/

She devotes all her time to school. She is very ambitious and ..... When it comes to achieving goals.

My best friend was really ..... before the exam as he had studied a lot.

Some people are quite ..... and are not affected by negative comments.

My neighbor became a ..... after some mysterious bags were found in his car.

Some ..... tests on the corpse found in the park yesterday.

The police had to wait to ..... as it took some days for the victim to regain .....

D) Write an OREO paragraph about ONE of the statements below. Your production must include at least one instance of inversion and 2 conditional sentences. Also three of the words given. The use of appropriate linkers is essential.

a- Being an immigrant is quite tough.

b- The Chinese horoscope description of people is accurate.