

Activity 1: Connect the sentences using “and, but, or, so, because”

1. Max was crossing the road                      He was hit by a bicycle
2. Max rolled into a ball                      He wasn't hurt too badly
3. He knew that he could stay near the road                      He could go home
4. He wobbled as he walked                      He had a bad headache
5. His sisters knew he was hurt                      they wanted to ask him questions
6. Max hurt his head                      his thoughts were muddled

Activity 2: Answer the questions below. Write “A,B,C, or D” in the middle spaces

| Questions                                                   |  | Answer options                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|--|---------------------------------------------------------|
| Why did father and mother albatross leave little albatross? |  | A because he had never been left before          |
| Who watched them go?                                        |  | B They thought he was quite big and strong       |
| Why was little albatross crying?                            |  | C killer bird                                    |
| Why didn't his parents hear him?                            |  | D because the wind screamed and the waves roared |

Activity 3: Write the correct verbs

1. My mom                      some meal every day (cook/cooks)
2. Audrey                      early at night (sleep/sleeps)
3. Carrisa and Audrey                      ice cream at school canteen (eat/eats)
4. Nicole                      milk shake in classroom (drink/drinks)
5. Kayla and Dhean                      the room (clean/cleans)
6. My Dad                      a car (drive/drives)
7. I usually                      the floor in the morning (sweep/sweeps)

Activity 4: Listen and write the verbs

1. Nicole                      ice cream every afternoon
2. Audrey                      at 10:00 every night
3. Dinya and Carissa                      games at home
4. Nesta                      orange juice in the café
5. My mom                      some rice for breakfast