

1) Underline the answer

Oil is ----- resource.

(Renewable - nonrenewable - unnatural - reverse)

Water and wind are ----- resources.

(Renewable - nonrenewable - unnatural - kind)

What ----- happen if there were no more trees?

(Will - can - Would - must)

Trees and oil are ----- resources.

(Renewable - natural - unnatural - reverse)

- ----- is everything around us.

(Habitat - Environment Development - Population)

We are using ----- the world's natural resources.

(Out - away - up - at)

The book about environment says we are ----- too much waste

(Producing - developing - extracting - renewing)

Trees ----- take a long time to grow.

(Would - should - ought to - might)

If there were no more trees, we ----- have clean air.

(couldn't - wouldn't - shouldn't might not)

Trees are the resource for paper -----

(Products - habitats - development - extracting)

We should ----- the glass bottles and the paper we use.

(Consume - use up - recycle - develop)

A ----- is a place where a particular type of plant or animal is normally found.

(Habitat - resource - development production)

People shouldn't cut ----- trees.

(off - up - down - at)

We asked the carpenter to put some new shelves on the -----

the wall. (Out - up - away - in)