1. Read and complete.

Polly loves pizza. She loves the smell of pizza and the taste of pizza.

She loves the sound of pizza when it is cooking. But Polly has a problem. Her parents never change the toppings on their pizzas. They always have tomato, olives, cheese and onion.

So, last Friday Polly decided to make a 'P pizza'. First she looked in the fridge. There were lots of tomatoes but she couldn't put tomatoes on a P pizza. She didn't take the tomatoes but she took some potatoes. In the cupboard there was some pasta and in the fruit bowl she found pears, plums and a pineapple.

'Perfect!' Polly said. She cut the toppings and put them on the pizza.

Then she put the pizza in the oven. She was excited!

Later, when the family was sitting at the kitchen table, her parents asked, 'What has this pizza got on it?'

'It's got food beginning with the letter P on it,' Polly said. 'It's Polly's perfect P Pizza!'
