3 Complete the text on disruptive technologies using the passive. Sometimes more than one tense is possible.

According to some experts mainstream customers are to blame for the lack of creativity that takes place in companies. One of the problems today is that products 1 _____ (develop) to meet the needs of the main market rather than 2 _____ (aim at) smaller niche markets. When some disruptive technologies first appeared they 3 _____ (not see) as profitable items. Managers did not truly understand how a company could be helped to grow by developing a product they felt would not be popular with regular customers. However, if a department within the company 4 _____ (set up) to deal with this, the leaders of the company could support new developments and keep everyday operations from stopping it. One example of a disruptive technology is the internet. In some cases the mainstream media 5 _____ (replace) because people find it easier to read about the news online. Another example is in the communications field where mobile phones 6 _____ (take over) in many households where people no longer have landlines.

These are all reasons for companies to keep up their search for those new and exciting ideas.
