Hi Natalie,

How are you? I've just got back to London after a really terrible (1) I honestly thought I was going to miss my flight home. My host mother booked a car service to take me to the airport, but it was really late coming. Apparently, one of the bridges had been closed so there was a big (2) By the time I got to the airport, there were really long queues for my flight and when I got through security I had to run to the (3) – which of course was right at the other end of the airport – because they were ready to (4) They were calling my name on the loudspeaker! And then, would you believe it, there was a delay before we were able to (5) because of a storm. It was a very bumpy flight and I was so glad to get home!

Anyway, apart from that I had a great time!
Speak soon,
Eleanor

At school our teacher has given us an (1) to do at the weekend about how we can reduce our carbon footprint and I've just calculated mine. I thought I was doing OK, but my estimate was way off. In fact, I really (2) the impact of my travel – it's worse than I thought. I use the (3) to go to school because it's quick and there are no traffic jams, but it would be better if I walked. It's no fun when it's raining though. Then there are holidays. My sister is in Brazil doing her master's in environmental science and we're all going to visit her there. But the (4) to Rio will make my carbon footprint much bigger. Sometimes I buy fruit from the supermarket that has travelled a long way because I prefer it to what's in season at the moment, but I'm working (5) changing that.
