

CDMX

the hilltop Chapultepec Castle

the Palace of Fine Arts

Historic Center, of Mexico City.

Chapultepec

México City is the capital of the Mexican Republic and has become the financial, cultural and political center of the country. It is one of the biggest and most populated cities in the world. Seven hundred years of history can also be appreciated among its great avenues, speedways, boulevards and skyscrapers; this is why the city shows several expressions of its traditional roots evoking a native and colonial past, together with the most refined art and architectural expressions reflecting modernity and the potential future of a growing metropolis. Its pre-Hispanic remains show the greatness of the first civilizations settled on this site.

_____ a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This ten-acre area is home to numerous historical buildings, museums and the Templo Mayor. The baroque art in the various churches will amaze you, starting with the Metropolitan Cathedral. A perfect way to end the day is trying a famous Mexican dish or a refreshing drink on one of the terraces overlooking the zócalo.

A Palace and a great Park full of history. Visit _____, City's premier arts institution and one of its architectural landmarks with amazing murals and the famous stage curtain which is a stained glass foldable panel created out of nearly a million pieces of iridescent colored glass by Tiffany's in New York.

_____ The world's largest park within a city, perfect for the entire family. Take a stroll around the forest trails and in the lake rent a pedal boat or a rowboat, visit the zoo, the Papalote Children's Museum, the Museum of Technology and of course the old style fair.

Un bosque y un Castillo. Live the experience of visiting _____ that houses the National Museum of History and learn about the most representative of Mexico's historical heritage through times, and enjoy the checkerboard marble terraces, the fountains and tremendous views.