

I. WRITE SENTENCES USING 'WISH' + PAST SIMPLE ABOUT THE THINGS I DON'T LIKE.

Example: 'I don't have a car' change to 'I wish I had a car'.

1. I don't have a car.

2. I don't play the piano.

3. I don't have time for my family.

4. I don't have a house.

5. I live in a polluted city.

6. I have a terrible headache.

7. She has an old dress to wear.

8. He has a lot of difficult problems.

9. He drives badly.

10. My laptop works badly.

II. WRITE SENTENCES USING 'WISH' + WERE / WEREN'T ABOUT THE THINGS I DON'T LIKE.

Example: "I am sick" changes to "I wish I weren't sick".

"I am not good at soccer" changes to "I wish I were good at soccer"

1. I am poor.

2. I am really short.

3. I am really sick.

4. I am so jealous.

5. I am broke.

6. He is not taller.

7. My house is not bigger.

8. He is not intelligent.

9. He is not a good student.

10. They are not good at math.

III. WRITE SENTENCES USING 'WISH' + WOULD ABOUT THE THINGS I DON'T LIKE.

Example: "People throw away garbage in the streets" changes to "I wish people wouldn't throw away garbage in the streets".

1. Bus drivers drive so fast.

2. Students stay up late.

3. My students make noise in class.

4. John smokes a lot.

5. My friend asks me for favors all the time

6. Peter doesn't clean his bedroom.

7. My sister doesn't do the dishes.

8. Mary doesn't set the table for lunch.

9. My Tv doesn't work well.

10. Roger doesn't care about things.
