What a way to spend the summer!

Students tell us about good jobs they've got for the summer.

A James

Wow! What an excellent job! Just for the summer I've got the best job in the world. I'm a lifeguard on my local beach. Swimming is my biggest hobby and I normally spend every day of my holidays on the beach. Now I can do the same thing and earn some money at the same time! I have to watch the people in the water and help them if there are any problems. Most people are very sensible and don't take risks or do dangerous things. Sometimes young children swim out too far though. Then they get tired and can't swim back. I go and help them. So, I'm on the beach in the sun and everyone thinks I'm a hero. Cool job huh? It's a shame I have to go back to school in two weeks.

B Sally

Last year I worked in a supermarket over the summer and it was a bit boring. Also it was really hot! So this summer I wanted a job outdoors. There was a notice at school advertising for people to help at a big tennis tournament in my town. I love tennis and the competition is outside on grass courts, so it sounded perfect. And it is! I'm a ball girl. That means I stay by the net and when there are balls on the court I run across and pick them up. It's quite tiring but I'm getting a lot of exercise which is brilliant. I also meet famous players every day. Much better than working in a supermarket!

C Imogen

When it's hot and you're out in the sun, what's the best thing to eat? Ice cream! And my job this summer is selling it! I sell ice creams from a stall on the beach near my home and I liked the idea of eating ice cream all the time – for free. The idea was great but the reality isn't! The first day I ate so much that I was ill. So, now I hardly ever eat one – I just don't like them anymore. But the good thing is that I'm outside and I think I'm the most popular person on the beach. When people see me they're always happy and smiling! That makes you feel very good.
