A Young Activist

Malala Yousafzai was 15 years old when she was a victim of a gunshot attack in Pakistan. Can you imagine someone shooting you because you want girls to attend school? After two long operations, Malala survived. When she recovered she continued defending women's right to receive an education. In 2013, Malala was 'the most famous teenager in the world.' Everyone was fascinated by Malala's initiative. When she was 17, she won the Nobel Peace Prize. She was the youngest person to receive the prize.
