

PART 3: CONTINUE READING

Diana, 11

"I like the monkeys, too. Sometimes they get hurt and I take them home and look after them. When they are better I release them back into the wild."

"In the rainforest, the beans to make chocolate grow on trees. I like to play "tag" in the jungle with my friends and to climb the cocoa trees. Sometimes my grandma gets angry with us because she says we're taking all the chocolate."

"It's very difficult to find your way in the jungle, and although that makes it more exciting to play in, it's also more dangerous."

"All the children play hide and seek but it's easy to get lost. I find my way by looking at the trees. My brother once got lost and he didn't find his way home until four in the morning."

C. Answer.

1. Why does Diana have monkeys at home?
2. What kind of trees does Diana like climbing?
3. Why is it dangerous to play in the jungle?