

Exercise1

Complete the following with the correct form of the verbs: to or -ing.

- a) I wonder where they are. They promised not _____ late. (be)
- b) Do you think they don't mind _____ for a while? (wait)
- c) She couldn't wait _____ her examination. (finish)
- d) He hopes _____ a job soon. (find)
- e) Please, carry on _____, we'll catch you up soon. (walk)
- f) Hi! Fancy _____ you here! What a surprise! Would you like _____ me for dinner? (see, join)
- g) Did the man admit _____ into the house and _____ away with the cash? (break, make)
- h) I think you've explained how _____ with the customer. (deal)
- i) Anita seemed _____ the interview. (pass)
- j) I'm tired of Robin. He tends _____ things. (forget)

Exercise2

Put the verb in the right form: -ing or infinitive (with or without to).

- a) We don't allow _____ in the house. (drink)
- b) Do you like _____ in the US? (live)
- c) She didn't let me _____ the letter. (read)
- d) Would you recommend us _____ for the job advertised in the paper? (apply)
- e) I wouldn't recommend _____ in that pool. The water is polluted. (swim)
- f) Do you make your friend _____ in the morning? (wait)
- g) The girl threatened _____ herself if she was forced to marry against her choice. (kill)
- h) The coach has agreed _____ more facilities to the players. (provide)
- i) She reminded me _____ the letter after registering it. (post)
- j) The committee considered _____ foreign funds. (accept)

Pinterest

Visit

Grade 9 Grammar Lesson 45 The infinitives and the -ing form ...

Images may be subject to copyright. Learn more