

NAME: _____

DIRECTION: Choose from the box what water form is being described. Then, write your answer in the blank provided.

stream lake ocean waterfall river pond

It is the biggest body of water.

It is a large body of running water.

It is also a running water. But it is not as wide or as deep as a river.

It is a small lake. It is not very deep. We can grow milkfish and tilapia in it.

This water form comes from a high place.

It is a large body of water surrounded by land.