

Unit 5. SUBSTANCES AND MIXTURES

Pure substances are types of matter with nothing else.

A mixture is the result of putting 2 or more substances together. Mixtures can be homogeneous (you can't see parts of the pure substances that forms it) or heterogeneous (you can distinguish the different substances).

1. Classify the mixtures according to their type.

