

Understand

Comprehension

Think Which is your favorite poem?
Why is it your favorite?

A Match each poem with a theme.

- | | | |
|--|-----------------------|--|
| 1 "Bed in Summer"
by Robert Louis Stevenson | <input type="radio"/> | a The poet asks about little things in nature. |
| 2 "But I Wonder ..."
by Aileen Fisher | <input type="radio"/> | b The poet is having fun at the dining table. |
| 3 "A Dangerous Raisin"
by Michael Rosen | <input type="radio"/> | c The poet wants children to be creative. |
| 4 "Colour" by Michael Rosen | <input type="radio"/> | d The poet wonders why his bedtimes are so early. |

B How does Michael Rosen's poem, "Colour" help you to be creative? Share with the class.

C Words in Context Connect each word with a sentence.

- | | | |
|-----------------|-----------------------|--|
| 1 insects | <input type="radio"/> | a This is bright, and it moves fast across the sky. |
| 2 escaped | <input type="radio"/> | b This means "to get away from a place." |
| 3 shooting star | <input type="radio"/> | c This means "jumping up high." |
| 4 leaping | <input type="radio"/> | d Ladybugs and grasshoppers are examples of these. |