

How was your trip?

- Watch the video. Complete the gaps and open the brackets and put the verbs in Past Simple form

Melanie: Well hello Dr. Anderson. _____ back!

Dr.Anderson: Thank you very much.

Melanie: How _____ your trip to London?

Dr.Anderson: It _____ (be) fine, thank you.

Melanie: Did you visit lots of museums?

Dr.Anderson: No, I _____ visit any.

Melanie: Did you eat in some good restaurants?

Dr.Anderson: No, I _____ (eat) in the same bad restaurant every day.

Melanie: Did you see any plays or concerts?

Dr.Anderson: No, but I _____ (watch) TV in the hotel room at night.

Melanie: Did you take some nice walks around London?

Dr.Anderson: Actually, no. I _____ (sit) in a chair for four days.

Melanie: Dr. Anderson, that doesn't sound like a very nice vacation...

Dr.Anderson: Vacation? I _____ to London for business, not for vacation. I _____ (meet) doctors from all over the world. We _____ (talk) about new medicines and I _____ (give) two speeches. I always _____ (eat) at the hotel restaurant. So, I actually never _____ (leave) the hotel.

Melanie: But Dr. Anderson, you _____ (be) in London, then you _____ see the city?!

Dr.Anderson: No, but it looks nice from the airplane