

Fill in the gaps using who, which, whose or who's where necessary.

1. The woman _____ made the cake is 80 years old.
2. That is the girl _____ has just sold her bike to me.
3. What do you think of the new teacher _____ started this year?
4. John's the man _____ car broke down last week.
5. Have you got any money _____ you can lend me?
6. She's the woman _____ brother is a soldier.
7. I lost the necklace _____ my grandmother bought me for my birthday.
8. When are you going to move those boxes _____ are in the hall?
9. The man _____ owns that shop is retiring next year.
10. Can you tell me _____ took my phone from the table?
11. The man _____ lives down the road is very rich.
12. _____ car is parked in front of our house?
13. I saw a beautiful carpet _____ I want to buy.
14. Have you finished with the book _____ I lent you?
15. That's the woman _____ a school teacher.
16. The boy _____ sits next to me at school has got three sisters.
17. She's the girl _____ helped me with the task.
18. Where are the eggs _____ I bought earlier?
19. This is the shop _____ was burgled last night.
20. _____ were you talking to on the phone?