

1. Put the verb into the right form to complete the text.

Harry _____ (1) (keep) a diary. He _____ (2) (write) it every day.

Here is his diary for a week in May.

Monday 15th. It rained all day so we _____ (3) (not/have) sports.

We _____ (4) (stay) in our classrooms and _____ (5) (read) our library books.

Tuesday 16th. I _____ (6) (miss) the bus and I _____ (7) (be) late for school. It _____ (8)

(be) not my fault. The bus _____ (9) (be) too early.

Wednesday 17th. I _____ (10) (have) an English test today. I got 96%. I _____ (11) (make) only one mistake. I _____ (12) (use) the wrong tense in a sentence.

Thursday 18th. I _____ (13) (go) swimming with Adam. We _____ (14) (have) a lesson with a swimming instructor. He taught us how to dive.

Friday 19th. I _____ (15) (be) ill all day. I had caught a cold at the swimming pool. I _____ (16) (stay) in bed and _____ (17) (sleep) all day. I felt better in the evening.

I'm glad it was Friday and not Saturday or Sunday.

Saturday 20th. I _____ (18) (be) much better today, but Mum _____ (19) (make) me stay at home. I _____ (20) (watch) television all day. It _____ (21) (be) boring.

Sunday 21st. I _____ (22) (not/do) anything interesting today.

2. Read the text again and mark the statements

True (1),

False (2),

Not Stated (3).

1. Harry likes to write in his diary.
2. We can read his diary for several days in May.
3. The weather was sunny on May 15th.
4. On Monday Harry read books at home.
5. Harry was late for school because he slept too long.
6. Harry's results in his English test were not good.
7. Adam is Harry's brother.
8. The swimming instructor was young and tall.
9. Harry was ill on Friday.
10. Harry liked his weekend very much.

