

Name: _____

Grammar Worksheet

Content: present perfect: active and passive voice

Part A

Instructions: Read the following sentences and check if they are in P (passive) or A (active) voice.

- | | | |
|--|----------|----------|
| 1. The expedition leader has planned the route. | A | P |
| 2. Have the team leaders been trained yet? | A | P |
| 3. The tents haven't been packed yet. | A | P |
| 4. Food and water have been prepared by the guides. | A | P |
| 5. Has the leader spoken to all the team members? | A | P |
| 6. No one has been up this mountain before. | A | P |
| 7. Has the summit of the mountain been reached before? | A | P |
| 8. Haven't the rescue services been informed about the expedition? | A | P |
| 9. Have you gone up the Everest? | A | P |
| 10. Many people have climbed Mount Everest. | A | P |

Part B

Instructions: Complete the sentences with the present perfect passive form of the verbs in parentheses.

- _____ the climbers _____ (prepare) for the harsh conditions?
- _____ a route _____ (select)?
- Which blankets _____ (take)?
- _____ the flashlights and first aid kits _____ (pack)?
- Where _____ a rest site _____ (choose)?

Part C

Instructions: Rewrite the following sentences into the present perfect passive.

1. We haven't booked our tickets yet.

2. No one has packed the guidebook.

3. We haven't told our parents about the trip.

4. No one has informed the school about the new COVID protocols.

5. Haven't they reserved rooms?

6. Has someone made the hotel reservations?

7. Who has informed the school about the new COVID protocols?

8. Why haven't they reached the summit?

9. What have they brought for the emergency?

10. Where have they put all the equipment?
