

A. Complete the sentences using a word derived from PLEASE.

1. The conversation was resumed, and no longer in the _____ hostile tone of Nicholas' last remark.
2. Cynthia was super _____ to hear her son's voice, but her mood changed abruptly when he blurted out the news.
3. Nothing gives me greater _____ than to take my friends out rowing when they visit me.
4. Such a _____ day and evening should have ended with a restful night and happy dreams, but it didn't.
5. Some parents fear that they may _____ their children, and therefore, lose their love if they are too strict.

B. Complete the sentences using a phrasal verb or an expression with BEAR.

1. Evidence the idea that students learn best in small groups.
2. me for a minute while I check our records.
3. The police asked if anyone might have against the victim.
4. His religious convictions kept him from, but he served as an ambulance driver.
5. She was frightened that she would be unable to under the pain of childbirth.
6. The child a striking his father.
7. Seeing the empty workshops now our industrial past.
8. The boys remained optimistic that their musical career might eventually

C. Use one of the words in the box to make an expression and complete the sentences.

offence insist allow approve account throw lead

1. I'm opposed to the death penalty. I the death penalty.
2. These discoveries may provide new information about the origins of the universe. These discoveries may the origins of the universe.
3. I think we can let them stay up and see the film. I think we can stay up and see the film.
4. Recent pressure at work may explain his behaviour. Recent pressure at work may his behaviour.
5. The passengers demanded to speak to the captain. The passengers speaking to the captain.
6. Her trusting nature often caused trouble. Her trusting nature often trouble.
7. I don't blame her for feeling offended. I don't blame her for positive mind.

positive vibes.
positive life.