

VOCABULARY WORK : "Doña Flor"

Open your digital or paper version of this story (Reach, p. 253) Check the words that are used in the story to complete this summary of the story.

Every morning when Flor woke up she  some snow on her face to wake up.

When she was a baby, her mother  to her in a sweet way.

Some mean children used to , "Look! Big Foot!", so she wouldn't hear them. But Flor didn't mind.

Flor used to give children a  to school when they were late.

Flor built her house out of  which is mud, water and straw.

She was so generous she used to make tortillas for the villagers.

Some used them as  in their houses and the children used them as  to float around in the pond.

One day, the neighbours didn't come out so Flor  their tiny homes to talk to them. They were terrified! They were  and shivering.

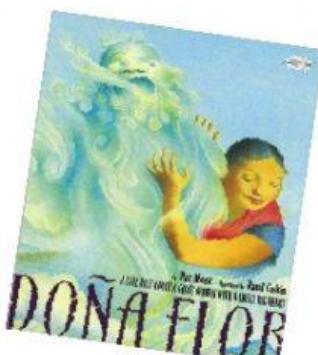

A puma was around! She decided to look for it with the help of some of her animal friends. But they couldn't find it. That night they were all  and Flor  the animals in bed. That night the puma and the wind  loudly.

Exhausted, Flor climbed the tallest [ ] and there he found a little puma that wasn't so [ ]. She saw Pumito was roaring into a long [ ] log... that's why the sound was so loud!

She carefully [ ] close to him (so that he wouldn't hear her) and talked to him in cat talk.

They became friends there was no more roaring. Flor made a soft bed out of a puffy [ ] for her animal friends.

That night everyone went to sleep peacefully in Flor's village!

FIGURES OF SPEECH DRAW LINES TO MATCH

THE FIGURES OF SPEECH AND THE DIFFERENT STORY PARTS.

When she sang to her baby, her sweet flower...

ONOMATOPOEIA

She grabbed a handful of snow... "Brrrrr", she said rubbing the snow on her face.

PERSONIFICATION

Every winter morning when the sun opened one eye...

SIMILE

Her mother sang to her in a voice as sweet as river music.

METAPHOR