

Unit 1E – Phrasal verbs

1) Complete the sentences with the correct phrasal verb. Make sure you write the verb in the correct form (infinitive – ing form - past –past participle) put up with - fit in with - get away with - catch up with go back on - look up to - live up to - make up for

I have always _____ my brother John. He is a successful sportsman but also a very good person. When I grow up I want to be like him.

When fluffy moved in, he immediately _____ the rest of our pets. He looks and act as one of them!

Sometimes I feel I can never _____ the rest of the students. When I start, they have already finished.

Peter said horrible things yesterday. Now he wants to _____ it with a bunch of flowers. But, I won't accept them.

The movie was excellent. It _____ to our expectations.

I can't _____ my neighbours' noise any more.

Linda often cheats on exams but usually _____ it.

He has _____ his word and decided not to give me the job after all.

2) Choose the phrasal verb which best completes each of the following sentences/situations.

- a. He was an aggressive man. His wife got tired of the whole situation and walked out on / put up with him.
- b. When my son turned 18 he decided to get up to / sign up for the army. I really miss him.
- c. I couldn't answer all the questions. The test was very long and I make up for / ran out of time.
- d. Every Saturday I tell myself that I'm going to help mum tidy up the garage, clean my bedroom and then do my homework. But the truth is I never go in for / go through with it.
- e. Please, stop looking up / making up stories. You have never been to Egypt.
- f. Do you go in for / get away with adventure sports?
- g. I have never got on with / caught up with my sister. She is really immature and drives me crazy every single day of my life.
- h. What did you get up to / get away with yesterday? Were you very busy?
- i. If you don't understand the story, you can go through with / look up the difficult words in a dictionary.