Focus on Grammar | have to / don't have to

"Have to" is used to express certainty, necessity, and obligation.

Do you have to wear uniform every day? - Yes, we do.

"Do not have to" suggests that someone is not required to do something.

Does he have to bring all the books? No, he doesn't have to bring all of them.

Note this!...

Don't have to means that something is not necessary, but you can do it if you want to.

Mustn't means that something is forbidden and you definitely shouldn't do it.
