

MATCH AND REVISE
When a calf is born...		calves are weaned and they continue to graze on grass pastures.
It lives off its mother's milk and...		feedlots.
At 6 to 10 months,		...look after the animal.
Then, the ranchers will provide supplemental feed and they will become...		...it weighs about 60 to 100 pounds.
Mature cattle are moved to...		they are sent to processing facilities.
They eat a balanced diet made up of...		of safety, the animal welfare and the quality standards.
Veterinarians, nutritionists and cattlemen		...graze on grass pastures.
When the cattle reach the market weight,		stockers and backgrounders.
Inspectors oversee the implementation of ...		* ROUGHAGE: hay, grass and fiber. * GRAIN: corn, wheat and soybean meal.