

Adjective + infinitive; noun + infinitive

A Drag the sentences and drop them into the correct box under the questions.

It's a good idea to go to bed and rest.

It's important to go to a dentist.

It's sometimes helpful to take cough drops.

It's sometimes helpful to put it under cold water.

It's a good idea to use some ointment.

1. A: What should you do for a burn?

B:

2. A: What should you do for sore muscles?

B:

3. A: What should you do for a headache?

B:

4. A: What should you do for a cough?

B:

5. A: What should you do for a toothache?

B:

Modal verbs for requests and suggestions

B Choose the correct words to complete the conversations.

1. A: _____ I help you?

B: _____ I have a can of shaving cream?

A: Sure. Here you are.

B: _____ a backache?

A: _____ this bottle of pain medicine

B: Thanks.

2. A: Excuse me. _____ the flu?

B: Sure. _____ some of these tablets.

A: Thank you. _____ for insomnia?

B: _____ these pills? They're really good.

A: Thanks a lot.

