What's the matter? – It's quarantine!

(Present Simple vs Present Continuous)

Sylvia usually _____ (get) up at 7.

She _____ (not/sleep) until noon.

It's 7 o'clock in the morning! Sylvia _____ not/get) up!

She _____ (sleep)!

Rosa always _____ (put) on her school uniform in the morning.

She _____ (not/wear) old dresses.

Look! Rosa _____ (not/wear) her school uniform!

She _____ (wear) an old dress!

Mary always _____ (have) a healthy breakfast in the morning.
She never _____ (eat) chips.

Look! Mary _____ (not/have) her healthy breakfast!

She _____ (eat) chips!

Susan always _____ (take) her bag and _____ (go) to school.

She _____ (not/stay) at home.

Oh, look! Susan _____ (not/take) her bag!
She _____ (not/go) to school!
She _____ (stay) at home!

Nancy always _____ (have) classes at ten in the morning.
She _____ (not/sleep) at that time.

Now it's ten o'clock but Nancy _____ (not/have) classes.
She _____ (get) up.

Rob always _____ (walk) his dog in the park at four in the afternoon.

He _____ (not/stay) at home and he _____ (not/read) any books.

It's four in the afternoon but Rob _____ (not/walk) his dog!
He _____ (stay) at home and – look! – he _____ (read) a book!

Mr. Happy always _____ (do) his shopping at seven p.m.

He _____ (not/watch) TV.

It's seven p.m. but Mr. Happy _____ (not/do) his shopping.

He _____ (sit) on the sofa!
He _____ (watch) TV!

Mr. Busy always _____ (work) until 11 p.m.

He _____ (go) to bed early.

It's only ten in the evening but Mr. Busy _____ (not/work)!

He _____ (go) to bed!

LIVEWORKSHEETS