

Multiple Meaning Words

Multiple meaning words have the same spelling but different meanings.

We have to read the sentence carefully to know which meaning the writer wants to use.

Select the correct answer that matches the underlined word.

1. The guard will train the dog to watch.

A vehicle/line of carts on a railroad.

To teach something.

2. He had to pet his friend to stop him from crying.

To touch or stroke something lightly.

An animal living with people.

3. Birds fly very fast.

move through the air

An insect with wings

4. I got a watch for my birthday.

A small clock worn on the wrist.

To look at or view

5. He raked the dry leaves in the yard.

goes away

parts of a plant or tree

