Telling a guy to "Just be confident" as dating advice is like telling a depressed person to "Just cheer up".

[...] I hate being nervous around new people, but I can't just decide not to be. [...]

"fake it until you make it" [...]. If I could, I already would!

I have had problems with self-esteem since I was a child. And that probably brings lots of uncertainty about what to say or to do when talking to someone I do not know. In my opinion, a good thing to do is to improve your self-esteem and consequently your confidence will increase.
