

Have + noun; feel + adjective

A Look at the picture and choose the correct sentence.

- a. I have a sore throat.
- b. I has a toothache.
- c. I have an earache.
- d. I have a toothache.

- a. He have a fever.
- b. He have a backache.
- c. He has a fever.
- d. He has a cough.

B Drag the sentences and drop them into the correct boxes to complete the conversation.

That's too bad. Do you want an aspirin?

What's the matter?

OK. I'll be back.

I'm OK. What about you?

A: Hello, Josh. How are you?

B:

B: Not so good. Actually, I feel miserable.

A:

B: I have a terrible headache.

A:

B: Yes, please. I'm going to get some rest now.

A:

Infinitives for advice

C Choose the correct advice for these people.

- a. Work too hard.
- b. Not work too hard.
- c. Doesn't work too hard.
- d. Don't work too hard.

- a. Stay up late.
- b. Don't stay up late.
- c. Not stay up late.
- d. Does not stay up late.

- a. Don't take vitamin C .
- b. Not take vitamin C.
- c. Take vitamin C.
- d. Does not take vitamin C.

- a. Don't put an ice pack on it.
- b. Not put an ice pack on it.
- c. Does not put an ice pack on it.
- d. Put an ice pack on it.