Becoming Vegetarians

Will we become vegetarians one day? Maybe, it' s time to think about change our diet.

Nowadays, when we go to the local supermarket, we see many types of meat to choose from. Recent, doctors have said we should not eat so much meat and choose more vegetables and fruit.

Some people would say we need eat in our diet as it is a good source of protein. This is use by our body to build and repair tissue.

However, we could get protein from many other types of food such as beans and nuts. This meant that we can take it out of our diet.

So, the next time you go to your supermarket have a look at the different things you can add to your diet rather then meat. Who knows? Maybe one day you might become a vegetarian.
