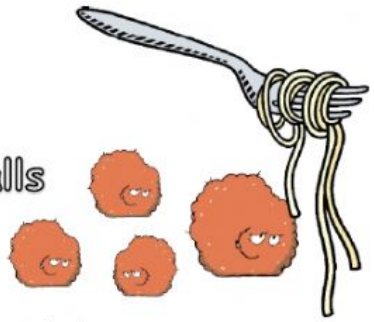
Ms. Andrews-2nd year



Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs

Sequence of Events

Look and listen to the story. Then, complete the activities below.

Sequence: Number the following sentences (1, 2, 3, 4, 5) so that they are in correct order.

_____ Grandpa flipped a pancake.

_____ The children were betting how many pancakes they could eat.

_____ That night, Grandpa told the best tall-tale bedtime story.

_____ The pancake flew in the air and landed on Henry's head.

_____ It was Saturday morning. Pancake morning.

Ms. Andrews-2nd year

Sequence: Number the following sentences (1, 2, 3, 4 etc.) so that they are in correct order.

There was a terrible salt and pepper wind storm, followed by a tomato tornado.

The people safely reached a small town and resettled. The biggest change they had to make was buying food at a supermarket.

Life for the townspeople was delicious until the weather took a turn for the worse.

Grandpa told a story about a town called Chewandswallow.

One day there was nothing but gorgonzola cheese all day long.

The only thing that was different about Chewandswallow was its weather. It came three times a day, at breakfast, lunch and dinner. Everything that everyone ate came from the sky.

It rained things like soup and juice. It snowed mashed potatoes and green peas. Sometimes, the wind blew in storms of hamburgers.

The people decided to abandon the town of Chewandswallow. They glued together giant pieces of bread to make rafts.

The food began to get larger, and one day a giant pancake covered the school.

The sanitation department gave up. The job was too big. Everyone feared for their lives. Many houses have been badly damaged and there was no more school for the children.