Hello, I'm Lan. I'm from Vietnam. It's autumn now and yesterday there was a full moon. That means it is time for Tet-Trung-Thu, the Autumn Children's Festival.
In the afternoon, we went to the shopping centre. We bought some lanterns. My lantern was a star, and my sister's lantern was a butterfly. We bought tiger masks too. We wore our masks, we played drums and we sang too. It was very noisy! Then we went home and had dinner. My aunts and uncles and my grandparents ate with us. The food was great. Granny gave us some moon cakes-I ate three!

B
Hi, I'm Ben. I live in Britain. It was the Cheese Rolling race last weekend. The race started at twelve o'clock. Everybody shouted "Roll the Cheese" and the Master of Ceremonies rolled the cheese down the hill. About 25 people tried to catch the cheese. It's difficult to run down the hill and lots of them fell over and rolled down! My brother Tom was in the race. My mum wasn't happy because she thinks it's dangerous. She's right! Four people went to hospital this year, one of them had a broken arm. Tom didn't catch the cheese, but he didn't break an arm either.
