Making Eggs

There are many ways to cook eggs.
Here are four different ways we can cook eggs:

Boiled eggs are eggs cooked with their shells unbroken, by boiling in them in water. Scrambled eggs are made from whisked eggs stirred or beaten together in a pan while being gently heated. A fried egg, is cracked in to a pan without breaking the yolk, and fried in oil or butter. An omelette is made from whisked eggs fried with butter or oil in a frying pan without any stirring.
