

Voting in Canada Worksheet

Part A: Using information from the video about Voting in Canada – answer the questions below.

Questions:

- How many levels of government are there in Canada? 1 2 3
- Which level of government looks after what happens in Ontario?
___ Federal ___ Provincial ___ Municipal
- Which level of government looks after the whole of Canada?
___ Federal ___ Provincial ___ Municipal
- Which level of government looks after what happens in Windsor?
___ Federal ___ Provincial ___ Municipal
- What do you call someone who wants to work in government?
candidate governor elector
- Canada is divided into 10 Electoral Districts. True False
- Which province has the most Electoral Districts?
Yukon Quebec Ontario PEI
- Federal elections take place on the _____ Monday in October, every _____ years.
- What is the name of the organization that runs elections in Canada?
Elections Canada Voter List Polling Station

Part B: Draw a line to match the government responsibility to the correct level of government.

Federal Government

Provincial/Territorial Government

Municipal Government

Part C: Drag the label to the correct picture below.

Voter Information Card

Candidate

Ballot

[Red rounded rectangle]

[Red rounded rectangle]

[Red rounded rectangle]