I was the worry wort of my family 1. _____ Elsa was the cool headed one.

Elsa never lost her cool for anything. She is always as cool as a cucumber.

2. _____, this very instance! If it was me who had broken Mom's precious vase, I would have packed all my belongings into one bag and called living with my family quits! "Come on! It's only a vase! I am sure Mother will find a replacement,"

Elsa commented nonchalantly. Elsa proceeded to clear the 'crime scene' very methodically. 3. _____, she grabbed a broom. 4. _____, she swept the broken fragments away. 5. _____, she placed a stack of newspapers where the vase was. She turned towards me and casually explained, "If Mom asks, say Dad kept them here and told no one to touch it!" 6. _____, she cleared the trash.

7. _____, she instructed, "This is to buy enough time until we can find a replacement for the vase. As long as we play it cool, Mom would never find out!" Elsa whispered, dusting her jeans with her hands. Within minutes, Mother was back.

8. _____ my heart was beating faster than a jackhammer, I maintained my composure as instructed by my sister. My mother's instincts are not something to be toyed with. She is as sharp as a tack and would find something was fishy! And, Mother did indeed find something fishy. She patrolled the room, her eyes scanning every inch. "You girls oddly seem well behaved!" Mom commented. Even though, there was nothing malicious in that comment, that was enough to trigger a string of confessions from me! "Mom-Elsa-broke-your-vase!" a sentence shot out of my mouth. No commas. No fullstops. Just like bullets firing out of a machine gun, operated by a trigger-happy looney. I was expecting Mom to play it cool too.

9. _____, Mother did not take the news lightly! The next few moments were catastrophic. Mom blew her top and we both equally received an earful of high decibels. 10. _____, we were both punished with household chores.

11. _____ our misbehavior, Mom eventually forgave us. We promised never to lie to her again. 12. _____, a week later, we managed to find a replacement for the vase. From that day on, I never lied again and I learnt honesty is the best policy. As for Elsa, she started taking up acting classes.
