PREPOSITIONS

FCE p. 15, 32

'Oh, I'm not ___ a hurry,' I said with a smile.

They came _____ foot. He was accused _____ murder.

Did she do this _____ purpose, was it all just a game, an act?

What did they discuss _____ at supper?

The sky was full ___ fire. Kate's engaged _____ Mark.

I am acting _____ behalf _____ the bank.

Listen ___ me, my girl!

The employees expect some increase ___ wages.

He grabbed my arm to prevent me _____ falling.

Our troops attacked _____ the enemy.

In spite of the heat he insisted _____ his woolen costume.

I always get the blame _____ his mistakes!

He is interested _____ snakes in general.

The entire building complained _____ the noise.

If you're unhappy with the service, you should complain _____ the manager.

The quality _____ my work is professional.

He has no intention _____ leaving the political stage.

Let's try to have a calm discussion _____ your grades.

The two games have much _____ common. Tell _____ me the worst at once.

One candidate _____ particular impressed us with her knowledge.

_____ theory their plan makes sense.

Leave _____ it to me. I can handle it. Poor Teresa was nearly ___ tears.

In this case, several solutions ___ this problem could be tried.

He stayed _____ bed late on Sunday morning.

I'm thousands of dollars ___ debt.

The newspaper offered to apologise _____ the article.

She has the rare gift of being able to laugh _____ herself.

Don't mistake her ___ her twin sister.

She's keen _____ music. Anna got fed _____ _____ waiting.

They arranged to meet ___ secret. She was widowed ___ the age ___ 25.

She kept the money hidden ___ a secret compartment in her briefcase.

I'm tired ___ watching silly movies. Contact _____ your local dealer to order.

He was inexcusably cruel _____ his wife. We must avoid a scandal _____ all costs

They got on well despite _____ the fact that they always told on each other.

LIVEWORKSHEETS