CULTURE Teenage challenges

I can talk about hobbies and interests.

TAKING A YEAR OUT

1. Read what three teenagers are telling about their gap year abroad.

Daniel I'm having an amazing time here in the Brazilian rainforest. We arrived from Macapá two weeks ago. There are ten students and we are staying with families in the village. We're helping to build a new school. And we're trying to study Portuguese, but it isn't easy!

Christine I'm here in Cape Town, South Africa. I'm staying with my aunt and uncle. I'm working at a school in one of the townships outside the city. I teach English to young children. They are very poor, but they are always laughing. It's hard work, but the children are wonderful.

Thomas I live in London and I'm working in an old people's home in the city centre. There are fifty people living here. Some of them are quite sick. I help them read their letters, books and newspapers. I also help at mealtimes, and take people out for walks. It's hard work, but very rewarding.

2. Complete the sentences. Write D for Daniel, C for Christine or T for Thomas.

1 <input type="text"/> is learning a new language.	5 <input type="text"/> is working in his / her hometown
2 <input type="text"/> loves his/her students.	6 <input type="text"/> is helping to build something.
3 <input type="text"/> is taking care of people who are ill.	7 <input type="text"/> is teaching a language.
4 <input type="text"/> is living with relatives.

3 Complete the text. Use the words in the box.

The Duke of Edinburgh Award started in 1956. In order to complete the award, young people have to spend

1 doing exciting but challenging activities.

They do 2 (e.g. helping disabled people), learn 3 (e.g. designing websites) and go on 4 . They all have to write 5 before they do the 6 . And when they finish, they get a bronze, silver or gold award.
