

- I. Rewrite the sentences using the words in bold so they have the same meaning
- a. Henry was fortunate. Many of the old nobility had died or been defeated in the recent wars, and their lands had gone to the king NOT ONLY
  - b. Henry used the "Court of Star Chamber", traditionally the king's council chamber, to deal with lawless nobles, WHICH
  - c. Henry encouraged the use of heavy fines as punishment because this gave the Crown money. SO THAT
  - d. Henry also raised taxes for wars which he then did not fight. He never spent money unless he had to. EVEN THOUGH
  - e. Henry understood earlier than most people that England's future wealth would depend on international trade. And in order to trade, Henry realised that England must have its own fleet of merchant ships. ACCORDINGLY
  - f. During Henry VIII's reign France was now more powerful than England, and Spain was even more powerful, because it was united with the Holy Roman Empire, which included much of central Europe. BUT ALSO
  - g. Henry VIII's administration had a good profit as taxes and prices began to rise, producing the coinage to fall rapidly on its value. ALTHOUGH