NATIONAL AND LOCAL PRODUCE

1- Match the produce to the pictures, and the countries you associate it with. What do you know about these different foods and how they are produced?

2 Fish sauce

3 Thick yoghurt c Mexico

4 Chorizo sausage d Italy

5 Pate e Thailand

6 Parmesan cheese f Spain and Portugal

2 Miss Listen and check, and complete the sentences.

- 1 Jalapeno chilli peppers originally came from the Xalapa region in Mexico. over 160 sq km of land is dedicated to their production. They're picked and eaten while green, they're not too hot.

  2 It's very popular with Thai people, use it in most of their dishes.
- 3 Thick yoghurt is strained to remove more of the liquid, makes if thicker than ordinary yoghurt.
- 4 It's very spicy, with a flavour _ people often find too strong at first, but grow to love.

This is the type of cheese which is produced in my region.

I'm going to give you my favourite type of French cheese, which is produced in northern France.

3 Man Listen to the two sentences in the Spotlight on relative clauses. Which one has a slight pause before the relative pronoun?

- 4 Match the two sentence halves, adding a comma at the end of the first halves if necessary. Then say the complete sentences, with a slight pause where necessary.
  - 1 One of the latest popular health foods is quinoa
  - 2 I really enjoyed the bread
  - 3 The worst meal we had was in Edinburgh
  - 4 Seaweed is popular with the Japanese
  - 5 This is the region
  - 6 The grapes are picked in the early

5 Mz.4 Listen, check, and repeat.

- 7 That's the farmer
- 8 9 pm is the time

- A who grows the apples we ate yesterday.
  - B when they are cool and fresh.
  - C where most of the olives are grown.
  - D which is grown in South America. E when most Spanish people go out

  - F where we decided to try haggis!
  - G who use it to make sushi and other dishes.
  - H that you gave us at breakfast.

useful language ...... Describing food

It goes well with It's usually served with It's a speciality of ... It's deficious / divine / I couldn't live without . I'm addicted to

Adjectives

spicy sweet bitter crunchy salty creamy

