

What's your problem?

Remember your character? Write his or her name here:

Remember what is the setting of your story (really short):

Where?

When?

Now, you are going to describe a problem your character goes through.... This will be the most important part of the Plot of your story, be sure to include a funny or interesting or dramatic situation!